

The Association of Environmental Professionals presents:
The Sutter Buttes: A Guided Tour

The Sutter Buttes, known as the world's smallest mountain range, is a privately owned landmark that can be seen for well over 100 square miles in the Sacramento Valley. The Middle Mountain Foundation Interpretive Program provides access to the privately held hillsides and peaks. AEP has arranged two private guided hikes with the Middle Mountain Foundation where we will learn of the Sutter Buttes' unique origin and history.

Please join us on Saturday, October 20th for one of two hikes:

Hike #1: 9 am to 3 pm

Moderate hike guided by geologist Brian Hausback, a professor of geology at California State University Sacramento.

Or

Hike #2: 5 pm to 10 pm

Light hike and viewing of the night sky with Laura and Rod, avid nature and astronomy enthusiasts.

Please RSVP to Kristin Faoro at 916-316-2097 or kfaoro@pmcworld.com. The cost is $25 for AEP members and $30 for non-members. AEP will provide boxed lunches for participants of the day hike. Space is limited (only 20 people per hike), so RSVP soon. Please contact Kristin for cancellations so others may attend.

For additional information about the Sutter Buttes and the Middle Mountain Foundation, visit www.middlemountain.org

